Please let us know if you have any comments and/or concerns about your child's special education services that you wish to bring to the attention of the SFUSD Community Advisory Committee for Special Education. The CAC is a group of volunteers, composed of parents, students with special needs, professionals and interested community members and its purpose is to advocate for effective special education programs and services. While the CAC is an advisory committee and has no authority to fix any problems you may have, we value your input and letting us know about your experiences, good or bad, helps us be better advocates for all children in special education programs in San Francisco.
